We wish to have every lady in town call and inspect our Sterling vacuum cleaner. It will surely lift the dust out of your carpets and rugs if you will give it a chance. We will be pleased to demonstrate this vacuum sweeper in your own homes if you will leave your request for a demonstration when intending to purchase.

This sweeper will make a suitable Christmas gift for any lady. It is finished on white enamel and mahogany color and presents a very dainty appearance. It is similar in appearance to the ordinary carpet sweeper, and is as easily handled. The price is moderate.

You will find a sample on our counters. Let us order one for you for Christmas.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Tom Smith of Tucson, arrived from the old pueblo this morning.

A. E. Crepin came down from Patagonia last evening, returning home this morning.

Yesterday Col. A. T. Bird of the Oasis, accompanied by Mrs. Bird, were southbound passenger.

W. J. Newman, of the Lyric Theatre, is back from a combined business and pleasure visit to Los Angeles.

On Christmas Manager Ben Evans of the Montezuma hotel, treated the hotel employees to a fine turkey dinner.

Eduardo Ramirez is spending the holidays at home with his family. He is now engaged in business at Hermosillo.

Mayor L. E. Carrillo, after a ten day's visit to his splendid ranch near Elgin, came home to spend Christmas with his family.

George McIntyre is spending the holidays here with his sister Mrs. Phil Herold. George has a fine position in Los Angeles.

Mayor L. W. Mix and family will shortly occupy their fine old residence on International street. It has recently been remodeled and painted.

Lieutenant Frank Glasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Glasson, is spending the holidays at home. The lieutenant has a good job at the Three R mines.

I. E. Bowers, after spending a few days here on business connected with his ranch and mining property near Noria, Sonora, returned south Thursday morning.

Mr. Watt Gittins is spending the holidays at Courtland with his children, whom he has not seen for some time past. It goes without saying he is having a good time.

Col. Ben Ashbey, the passenger conductor, after several months on the Naco-Cananea branch, is again giving the high sign on the Nogales-Guaymas passenger.

I. Burgoon, Secretary of the Havalena Mining Company, is directing the annual assessment work on the many mining claims owned by the company in Santa Cruz county.

Superintendent Wanvig of the Three R mine, has gone to Los Angeles for the holidays. He was accompanied to Nogales by Mr. Kennedy, head bookkeeper at the Three R.

O. K. Franklin, the mining man, is a very busy man these days looking after his numerous mining claims in Santa Cruz county and across the international line in Sonora.

Judge Duffy and family enjoyed Christmas out at dear old Dad Parker's home in Parker Canyon, where Grandma Parker served one of her famous southern Christmas dinners.

Jay B. Mapletrop, the typewriter's friend, is hustling around town. Anything from a cash register to a bank safe, is easy for Jay. Have him fix the old typewriter, if nothing more.

W. H. Smith secretary of the Yaqui River Consolidated Gold & Copper Company went to Magdalena Thursday on company business. The Sonora mines of the company are located near Imuris.

Superintendent Williams of the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Mazatlan, after spending Christmas at Tucson with Mrs. Williams and the children, returned south yesterday.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Brickwood building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty.

The Sleeper, Romaine Fieldings celebrated Tucson picture, made a great hit at the Lyric Theatre last night, the big play house being packed to the doors. Mr. Fielding is now at Guaymas finishing his big Nogales picture, which promises to be the sensation of the year.

Vic Thornton's Christmas was indeed a most happy one because of the arrival at his home of a bouncing boy. Dr. Smelter reports mother and little Vic doing nicely. It is said that joy never kills, so papa Vic will recover.

There is a rumor in circulation here that Under Sheriff Frank Taylor has slipped one over his Nogales friends, by sneaking away and becoming a benedict. When he returns home he'll get all that's coming to him, say his friends.

Mr. Lew Koller, (Diamond Lew) accompanied by his wife, returned home Thursday from Tucson, where they spent Christmas with friends, who came down and took them to the old pueblo by auto. Lew reports having had a glorious time.

Captain Lou Haley, the veteran passenger conductor between Nogales and Tucson, whom everybody loves, enjoyed Christmas dinner at home with Mrs. Haley. On Christmas the captain and his good friend Ben Evans, manager of the Montezuma hotel, exchanged appropriate presents.

Master Car Inspector Sprinkle of this city, accompanied by his good wife and Master Homer, left the forepart of the week to enjoy the holidays at Empalme with friends. This is Mr. Sprinkle's first vacation in a coon's age, and we hope he and his estimable family are having a fine time by the sea.

G. Rohrer, proprietor of Hotel Sonora, of Cananea, and Hotel Almada, Guaymas, accompanied by his wife passed through Nogales the forepart of the week en route to Guaymas, where at this time of the year the weather is the finest in the world. Fred Becker, formerly of Nogales, is managing the Hotel Almada.

Yesterday afternoon near Harshaw, Richard Farrell, Jr., accidentally shot a young Mexican friend through the body with a pistol. Dr. Chenoweth hurried to the scene of the accident and late last night he and young Farrell arrived in the city with the wounded lad, who is now at the Sisters' Hospital where he will undergo an operation today.

The officers of the three troops of the 9th Cavalry, now stationed here, are all high-class southern gentlemen. The soldiers are well behaved and attend strictly to their own business. Some day Nogales will perhaps have a military post, then we will have greater opportunity to become better acquainted with the defenders of the greatest country on earth.

Last evening Dr. and Mrs. Purdy, accompanied by Bo. J. Whiteside, returned home from the 7-B Ranch, near Oracle, where they spent Christmas with the family of Carlos Reppelleus, foreman of the big ranch. Grand Dad Purdy says the pleasure of being with the kiddies was well worth the long auto trip, and Mr. Whiteside declared the turkey dinner "Just lovely."

A. E. Reddoch, ex treasurer of Santa Cruz County now head bookkeeper at the Cerro de Plata silver mines in Sonora, of which Elgin B. Holt is general manager and principal owner, spent Christmas in the city with relatives and friends. No man in Santa Cruz county has more friends than Mr. Reddoch, and all will be pleased to know that he is as usual "making good" at the big silver bonanza, where he has a responsible position.

Yesterday Don Manuel Mascarenas, the Nogales millionaire banker and ranch owner, returned from an extended visit to San Francisco on business and pleasure, looking the picture of health. Don Manuel reports having had a pleasant and successful trip. His numerous friends and acquaintances are pleased to see him back. During his absence from the city, his great ranch and stock interests were taken care of by his son Guillermo.

Elgin B. Holt, of the great Cerro de Plata silver bonanza in Sonora, a short distance south of Nogales, who last week accompanied a big shipment of silver to Nogales, where it was turned over to Wells Fargo & Co. express, after delightfully spending Christmas in the city with friends, returned to Cerro de Plata Thursday. Early next spring Mr. Holt will pay a visit to his old home in New Mexico, making the trip overland by automobile. He will be accompanied by a jolly party of Nogales friends, all of whom are assured the time of their life.

This week Omstead, of the Dominguez Builders' Supply Company, finished installing the big windows in the J. E. Wise building on Morley avenue, which will be occupied by the American Drug Store, now being moved into the elegant new quarters, from the Montezuma hotel building, and Jesus Salda-mando, the popular proprietor is as proud as a boy with his first pair of red top boots. The second story of the new building will be occupied by the Nogales Moose Lodge, which is at the present time taking on new life.

H. J. Karns, of Karns Bros., who was at Elgin last week when the demonstration train of the University of Arizona visited there, says a vast amount of good is bound to result from the visit of the demonstration train which is touring the state. Since hearing the learned professor's lecture, Harry says he is almost persuaded to become a dry farmer. He reported Elgin growing rapidly and says everybody is well and happy. An abundance of water is being developed and those who have cast their lot with Santa Cruz county, are glad they came.

Colonel R. R. Richardson of Patagonia, has for a couple of days been a guest at the Montezuma hotel. The colonel and the Lulley boys, Lew and Mark, own the Wandering Jew silver mine in the Santa Rita mountains this county. He and his partner, A. E. Crepin, sold the great Three R Bonanza for more than a half million, gold, to N. L. Amster, the Boston-Globe millionaire. Colonel Richardson, who, by-the-way, hails from dear old Pennsylvania, is a big man with big interests in Santa Cruz county, where he has resided many years. His Nogales friends are always pleased to see him visit the county seat.

Lieutenant Fred Krohn, the well known civil engineer, who for a number of years has been connected with the Southern Pacific of Mexico, with headquarters at Culiacan and Mazatlan, has been promoted from the position of assistant superintendent to the position of superintendent of the Nogales-Cananea division, and in future will make his headquarters at Naco. "Major" Krohn, as his intimate friends call Superintendent Krohn, is a great booster for the big company he has worked for many years, and is always working for the company's interest. Thursday he was a visitor in the city on his way to Naco from the south, to assume his new duties. We wish him success. Mrs. Krohn and the children are visiting Mrs. W. S. Cranx in California. The ladies are sisters.

JUST A REAL MAN.

Of all the irresistible personalities that have ever invaded the "Line City", Romaine Fielding, manager of the Lubin Company, is the King pin. We have heard so much of and for Fielding and his aggressive yet simple manner, that it behooved us to look this paragon up, and we find that everyone with whom he has come in contact, men women and children, and even dogs and horses, have come under his spell. The writer himself, after thirty minutes tete a tete, fell for this quiet subtle manly man, who lets others speak for him and even depreciates his own ability and splendid personality.

We heard Sheriff McKnight say that Fielding was one of the realist men he had ever known and there was nothing he would not do for him, as he tried Fielding out during the jail break when the murderer Yesbit escaped with four others, and had found him one of the clearest headed, cool-mannered men that it had ever been his pleasure to meet, and that is going some for Sheriff McKnight. The Sheriff also stated that Fielding was of invaluable aid to him in laying the lines for the capture of the men, which occurred the day after the jail break.

Now Fielding is a deputy sheriff of Santa Cruz county.

The best men of Nogales, as well as the women and children and as stated before, even the dogs and horses, have fallen under the influence of Lubin's busy manager, who has a smile for everyone and a knock for no one. For the first time in many moons, a man has entered Nogales who can get everything he wants from anyone. Success to Fielding and his company.

LUBIN COMPANY DINES.

Romaine Fielding and Members of His Company Made Happy.

Mr. Romaine Fielding, manager of the picture company, gave a call to his people for a dinner to be spread at Lulley's, on Xmas eve, on behalf of the Lubin Manufacturing Company. There were twenty odd plates laid, the guests including all the members of the organizations stationed here, the wives of some of the members; also Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Van Mourick of the Sonora News Company, which controls all the business on the Mexican railroads, and W. S. McKnight, sheriff of Santa Cruz county, and others. Over two hundred presents were distributed among the members of the organization. Mr. L. Lulley, proprietor of Lulley's Buffet, states that it was the biggest thing of the kind that has been pulled off in his cafe in many a year, also, as he stated, the most successful.

Mr. Fielding was presented with an elegant watch fob by the members of his company, made of three new twenty-dollar gold pieces, with gold links holding them together. Inscribed on the back of the first, "To our Director, Romaine Fielding, Manager, Lubin Western Company." On the second band was "Christmas, 1912, O. O. G. B. C." which the members of his company say means "One of God's Best Creatures;" and on the third band were the names of each member of the organization. Mr. Robyn Adair, the leading man, presented the present with the following address:

"PEACE ON EARTH GOOD WILL TOWARD MEN." CHRISTMAS 1912 TO O. O. G. B. C.

Long ago it was declared "IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH."

We, the undersigned members of your company, individually and collectively, think thusly; therefore, have the honor to present to our leader, Mr. Romaine Fielding, our names engraved in gold, as an everlasting token of our esteem, respect, and admiration, this little gift.

The three coins represent your MENTALITY, PERSONALITY, AND VITALITY; the chains holding the coins represent your "Humble Servants."

"AS IT WAS IN THE BEGINNING, NOW AND EVER SHALL BE, WORLD WITHOUT END." "IN UNION THERE IS STRENGTH."

To say that Mr. Fielding, as well as the members of the company, were overcome, puts it mildly, but it did us hard-hearted old border men good to see the temperamental artists of the Lubin organization show their feelings; their love and admiration for Mr. Fielding was too evident to need any words from us. Mr. Fielding in return for the gift made what we would deem his usual quiet simple reply, that thanked them more than all the words that Webster could give us. It meant things. We sincerely believe there isn't a member of the Lubin organization, under Mr. Fielding's management, but what would jump off of a five story building if he told them to do so, and without question, they are the most perfect set of ladies and gentlemen that it has ever been our pleasure to meet in the theatrical world. They are all an honor to their company and their Manager, Mr. Romaine Fielding.

Jerseys Have New Home.

The blue-ribbon prize-winning Jersey herd of thoroughbreds, including Lakefield Bess and her get, owned by the Nogales Jersey Farm, of which Mr. Frank Rich is manager, have a new home, and it's sure a dandy.

The new barn, in which there are daily to be seen twenty thoroughbred cows and one magnificent young bull—all Jerseys, was designed by Manager Rich and built by Contractor Charley Moody. It is a two-story building 40x35 feet, and is well ventilated, and clean as a drawing room, warm in winter and cool in summer. At all times there is an attendant present to care for the wants of Manager Rich's valuable family, of which there are sixty odd members on the Farm, many of which are world-beaters.

One day this week Manager Rich sold five cows to Sonora parties, each of which gave seven and one half gallons of milk daily. He also sold one two-year-old bull for $140, which Rich says is going some.

The Nogales Jersey Farm is a credit to Nogales, and we wish Manager Rich continued success.
